

Cookie Policy – My Wellsburg LLC

Revision Date: May 13, 2022

My Wellsburg LLC is the owner and publisher of the mywellsburg.com website.

Cookies, web beacons, and similar technology are small text files stored on your computer or mobile device when you visit most websites. They enhance your browsing experience in various ways, including remembering your preference settings, displaying relevant content, and ensuring pages function as intended.

The Main Types of Cookies

Session cookies:

These only last for the duration of your visit and are deleted when you close your browser. Session cookies track your movements between pages and store information entered within that session – often aiding website functionality or security.

Persistent cookies:

These cookies remain on your device after you close your browser. Persistent cookies store your preferences for future visits and provide targeted content based on your browsing activities and interests.

Please note: that each of the categories below contains a combination of both session-based and persistent cookies. Cookies don't capture any personal information except for first and last name.

The Cookies We Use

Performance cookies:

These cookies collect details about your activity on the website, such as the pages you visit most often. We use this information to assess and improve our website.

For example, performance cookies:

- Help us optimize video playback quality for the bandwidth available to your device
- Track the most popular pages on the site, how long users spend on the site, and other analytics details
- Help us manage tagging for our analytics packages

Functionality cookies:

These cookies make our website easier to use by remembering the choices you've made. We may also use them to test new page designs.

For example, functionality cookies:

- Track whether you have seen our cookie use policy pop up

Cookie Settings

You control how cookies work on your computer or mobile device by changing your internet browser settings. You can also allow cookies from specific websites by making them “Trusted Websites.”

You can delete existing cookies from your browser. If you completely disable cookies, we won’t gather any further information, but we may still use the information we’ve collected in the past.

Please note: if you use multiple internet browsers/computers/mobile devices, you’ll need to update your settings on each to disable cookies altogether.

Important: restricting cookies could mean you experience difficulty when using some online services. As an example, you may not complete our login form, as it relies on cookies to deliver critical functionality.

External Links

On our websites, you may find links to external sites – these are provided for your convenience, but we don’t endorse, guarantee or monitor products, services, or views that they offer or express.
